Exalted Ruler Joe Rodriguez

I've got exciting news to report: We had the honor of hosting the association vice president, Mark Mahoney, at our lodge on May 28. If you are not familiar with this visit, I'll explain.

The association vice president visits all the lodges in the district and introduces his committee chairmen to share valuable information and ideas on improving business in our lodges. Meanwhile, our first lady, Sheila Rodriguez, hosted first lady Debbie Mahoney for a fiesta-themed dinner the same evening. I am proud to report that our officers, chair officers, and staff did an amazing job and showed true professionalism. It was a great evening and an honor to have them at our lodge.

On May 20, our officers assisted with the Wally Dietrich Scholarship Awards ceremony. Our officers presented a series of awards to approximately 100 recipients. It was a privilege to be asked to participate in this great event.

On Monday, May 27, the veterans committee, along with our Emblem Club and lodge officers, represented Santa Ana Lodge #794 at the Memorial Day celebration at Santa Ana Cemetery. I was proud to see so many Elks members attend the honorable event.

Our lodge officers were asked by The HIVE Youth Program to assist with their second annual school year-end celebration, June 8. The HIVE is a daily after-school program for students from Kindergarten through 12th grade that aims to uplift children by teaching positive values and supporting foundational learning. Officers set up and organized fun picnic events throughout the day. Special thanks to our officers who cooked and assisted with the meal. It was quite an inspiration to hear the acceptance speeches given by these young students.

These kids had a blast, thanks to our very own assistant inner guard Cesar Grijalva who organized all the fun events. As you can see, our lodge officers have been hard at work promoting true Elkdom.

I want to sign off by reminding all our members to attend our Tuesday meetings. I encourage every one of our Elks members to stay informed on the business of your lodge.

Esteemed Leading Knight Mark Schauwecker

Welcome to Summer! Many have seen the motto “Elks Care... Elks Share” and this is very true of our great lodge.

On the caring side, I want to introduce the new chair for sickness and distress, Peggy Kupfer. With a big smile and a warm heart, Peggy is building community with our members. If you know of a fellow Elk whom we should keep in our thoughts and prayers, please share that information with Peggy at thinkingofyou@elks794.org or the front desk. We would like to care for our Elk family in time of need.

And Elks share. We are a family giving back to our community. The Purple Pig is the CHEA (California Hawaii Elks Association) major project to raise funds for children with disabilities. I am honored to announce that Marcia Pina will be the chair for this effort. Marcia has some great ideas to promote the Purple Pig so look for more details, events and opportunities to contribute to this worthy cause.

Last but not least, if you want to share some volunteer time on Monday nights, don't forget bingo. Tracy Smith and Linda Fernandez do an excellent job running our bingo fundraiser which supports charities within our lodge. They are looking for a few volunteers to support on the first or fourth Mondays It's fun, easy and they feed you, too! I serve as a verifier at bingo and found it a great way to get in some extra steps. Whether it's a lodge meeting, fundraiser event or volunteer opportunity, I look forward to seeing you at the lodge.

Esteemed Lecturing Knight Brian Byrd

June has been packed with a lot of great lodge activities. We had a great golf tournament. We placed 2nd in the world's largest chili competition in Tustin, we had a fabulous car show, and for our fathers we had magicians perform prestidigitiation. Did you get involved in these?

Have you participated in the Linda Fernandez backpack charity? There is still time to donate! We will also need volunteers to help put the back packs together for all the students that will benefit from receiving necessary items for school. Please get involved to help our communities. Details will be forthcoming.

Have you been taking your children, nieces, nephews, grandsons and granddaughters to the basketball court to practice their free throws? The Elk Hoop Shoot is coming soon with lots of fun, awards and recognition. As the time nears, there will be information available. But, it is not too early to start practicing. Please get involved.

Esteemed Loyal Knight Eli Morales

From the loyal knight station, it may be hard to believe that half of the year has already passed and we find ourselves at the beginning of July. July marks the beginning of summer, the warmest season of the year, filled with activities and opportunities just like our lodge.

Let us not become complacent with our achievements from the past six months, but instead, let us continue to move forward and strive to surpass our goals. I urge all members to get involved, participate, and experience all that Elkdom has to offer.

July is also a time to celebrate the birth of the United States of America, the greatest nation in the world. For many, the United States is their birthplace. For others, it is a dream come true. On the fourth of July, Independence Day, we commemorate the founding principles of this country and, most importantly, we celebrate the freedom to be ourselves. On this special day we will gather with family and friends, we will cook delicious feasts, there will be parades, fireworks will light up the sky and above all, we will unite as Americans. Let us not forget and pay tribute to our military heroes and their families, who sacrifice so much to protect our freedom. To them we express our deepest gratitude.

The second half of the year promises to be just as eventful as the first half, providing lots of opportunities to get involved and find your place. Remember, being part of the Elks means being part of a supportive family that stands ready to assist and provide aid whenever needed. If you require help, do not hesitate to ask - let's all be there for each other, as this is what makes our lodge exceptional. I look forward to seeing you all at the lodge, particularly on Tuesday evenings for our weekly meetings and the ensuing social hour where you can make new friends.

Elkdom, you got to love it!

General Manager John Moore

Summer is here, which means it is time for the annual family picnic and 4th of July party. A wise PER named Jeff Brumett had the idea to combine these two events into one. So we did and it worked out great last year with record attendance.

Tilers Karla and Patrick have been working around the clock to help celebrate this year's festivities and honor our nation's birthday in a BIG WAY. We've added something new: an apple pie baking contest! Make sure you sign up to enter the contest (if your name is Marie Callender you can't enter!). This event is designed for our members and their immediate family only. The cost is $5.00 at the door. Please call to let us know you are coming so we cook enough burgers, dogs and have plenty of ice cream. I must also mention that July 4 coincides with Marilyn and Anthony Severini's 68th wedding anniversary. Make sure to say hello and wish them many more!

Don't get left out! The fastest sell-out in concert series history was last year's Chicago Experience tribute band. They are returning to the Santa Ana Lodge on Friday, July 19. Details are on page 20. There's only enough room for the first 280 reservations, so call today to make yours.

MNF to Host Fundraiser for Scott Stevens

Sunday! Sunday! Sunday! Sunday, September 8 brings it all back as the NFL season opens in full swing for another year!

We have all the games at the lodge and this Sunday in particular will be a fundraiser for our incoming state association president, Scott Stephens! So along with all our usual football fun, we'll see how much we can help our own Orange Coast District leader and soon to be state president Scott and his first lady, Mary Kay, in preparing for their year leading the California-Hawaii Elks Association!

It's a big deal! Look in the August issue of the ElkHorn for more details! But until then, mark the date on your calendar!

Cigar Night Raises Funds for Scholarships

Cigar Night at the Elks Lodge is for smokers. No, it has nothing to do with Traegggers, brisket or pork roast, but is instead a gathering of Elks and their guests who gather together to enjoy an evening of fine food, exquisite wines and scintillating smokes, all while raising funds for our Elks scholarships.

Held on the fifth Tuesday of the month, when the lodge meetings are dark, cigar night is hosted by our friend Tim Rush for us to enjoy a fine meal, perhaps an adult libation, a cigar and excellent company on our California Patio.

Tim on occasion brings some of his own eclectic collection to auction off all for the benefit of scholarships. You never know what treasures will be available. This is an event like no other at the lodge! Come and join us for an enjoyable Elks evening for a good cause. Tickets will be available at the front desk through Sunday, July 28 (cigars not included).

I want to thank Tim Rush for his continued commitment and support of the scholarship committee and for continuing to host the event. Further, I would like to thank all the committee members and lodge members who continue to support our committee in raising funds for scholarships. Without your support, we would not have been able to award a record number and dollar amount of scholarships this past year.

Please mark your calendars for these upcoming scholarship events:

Volunteers Play a Vital Role

by Dan Breece

As you all know, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks are steeped in traditions. From our ritual ceremony to meeting agendas and beyond, tradition plays a huge role in who we are. None of those traditions are more highly regarded than being a volunteer. For most lodges around the country, volunteers operate them. They cook, clean, bartend and do pretty much all of the A to Z's for their lodge. It is how many of them stay open.

Of course, the Elks do not have a corner on the market of volunteerism. Dating all the way back to the 1700s, volunteerism has been a major part of our country. According to some, it all started with the forming of a volunteer fire department in 1736 in Philadelphia by none-other than Benjamin Franklin. Today, almost 70% of our firefighters are in volunteer departments.

Initially, volunteering was more faith-based volunteering, and eventually became more of a patriotic effort during the Revolutionary War. Those who could not get on the battlefield helped at home by boycotting British goods and raising funds to support their cause.

In the 1800s things really took off in an effort to unite communities, spurring volunteers to get involved. Out of this era came organizations like the YMCA, United Way and of course, the American Red Cross, founded by Clara Barton. She was a nurse who had volunteered during the civil war. Other more politically connected organizations sprung up during the 1800s with introduction of the abolitionist movement forming, with the likes of Harriet Beecher Stowe, Frederick Douglas and Sojourner Truth working to end slavery.

The 1900s saw even more growth with volunteering efforts being supported by religious, corporate, community and political roots. This resulted in a wide variety of and affected us across the country. The civil rights movement was born out of this, and college campuses were also deeply involved. It also spread beyond our borders with the formation of the Peace Corps in the 1960s.

More recently in the 2000s we saw a more patriotic resurgence after September 11, 2001. Regardless though, whatever century, decade or year, the Elks have always been there. We began as volunteers, helping form the first ever mobile army surgical hospital, the great Johnstown flood in Pennsylvania in 1889, the Elks Lodge members in San Francisco were the first responders to the earthquake in 1906. There are many other examples if you look at our history of when we stepped up to help those in need.

That attitude and effort continues today, and our lodge can proudly say we are an active role model for our own community. We have provided meals for homeless and veterans, school supplies and backpacks for underprivileged children, delivered drug awareness information to schools, been sponsors and attended the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life and so much more.

Yes, our lodge has the luxury of having staff to cook, clean and serve, but we also can be proud of our volunteerism in our community. So, if you have not yet, pick out a committee here at the lodge and get involved. Volunteers donate three things, their time, their money, or goods. It only takes an hour of your time, a dollar here or there or whatever goods you can donate to the cause. Once you get involved at whatever level it may be, you will reap more than you sow, knowing you've given to your community and those in need. Who knows, your heart might be touched in a way you never knew it could.

There are several ways you can volunteer from Monday night bingo to joining the veterans committee. For opportunities, go to Elks794.com/committees.

Golf Tournament Scores a Hole in One!

The second annual Santa Ana Elks Golf Tournament was a hit! Literally, it was a lot of hits of course, some better than others. All we can hope for is that we at least hit them straight!

The MNF committee held its second annual golf tournament back on June 1 at the David L. Baker golf course. Led by golf chair, Smiley Hernandez, the committee and volunteers hosted what was once again a huge success.

On a side note, the MNF committee measures success not just by the amount of donations received or money made for charity, but also by how much fun everyone has or had. On both counts, we hit it straight down the fairway on the golf outing. In fact, one of our participants hit it so straight on hole 10, he got a hole in one! The only possible down side to that was if it had been on hole 6, it would have won him $1,000. Easy come easy go!

We would like to thank all who donated or supported the effort. Included of course, is the committee but also those who were hole sponsors: Saddleback Chapel for the hole-in-one sponsorship; our silver sponsors JJ Barna of California Classic Paint and Body, Brett Olivier at Iinitial, Matt & Yolanda Lilly, Dino at RSR Tooling & Manufacturing, PER Jeff Brumett and Marc LaFont, and Carlos Arango; our gold sponsor, Mark Friedman at Aptiva Care Management. Also thanks to Eddie Quillares at State Farm Insurance for sponsoring our golf shirts and GM John Moore and the staff who coordinated our lunch and awards and made sure it all went smoothly.

We will begin planning for next year very soon, so we hope to see you all again next year!

Lodge to Celebrate Independence Day with Family Picnic.

The Fourth of July, Independence Day, has been a federal holiday in the United States since 1941, but the tradition of Independence Day celebrations goes back to the 18th century and the American Revolution.

The Congress voted in favour of independence from Great Britain on July 2 but did not actually complete the process of revising the Declaration of Independence until two days later.

From 1776 to the present day, July 4 has been celebrated as the birth of American independence, with festivities ranging from fireworks, parades and concerts to more casual family gatherings and barbecues.

The Santa Ana Elks Lodge is no exception. On July 4, the lodge will host a family picnic for lodge members and their immediate family. There'll be food, live music, drinks, face painting, snow cones, an ice cream sundae bar and a desert station.

All this patriotic family fun is available to Elks and their immediate family members for only $5 per person. Please RSVP online (Elks794.com) or by calling the lodge so we know how many burgers to barbeque!

Elks Cruise to Mexico with CHEA First Vice President Scott Stephens

Come join first vice president of CHEA Scott Stephens and first lady Mary Kay Stephens on a three-night Ensenada cruise aboard the Royal Caribbean Navigator of the Seas.

The Navigator of the Seas delivers a maxed out adventure in just a few short days. Take on record breaking thrills, like the longest waterslide at sea. Soak up bigger, bolder, splashier pool days. Swap going out for going all out with next level nightlife and dining. This is your short vacay, turned way, way up.

Ensenada is known as the "Capital del Vino Mexicano". This means the Capital of Mexican wine, as it is one of the entranceway cities to the wine route in Baja, California. Ensenada is the largest municipality in Mexico due to its extensive physical environment, flora, and fauna. Not only that, Ensenada is a popular tourist destination that attracts many tourists who prefer nature and outdoor activities and, of course, shopping.

The cruise leaves the port of Los Angeles on January 31, 2025 and returns February 3. The price per person is $312 for an interior room, $466 for a outside room and $642 for a balcony room. A deposit of $250 per person is required at the time of booking. For more information, or to make a booking, contact Tas Whitmore at Avooya Travel at 714-681-6164 or email catherine.whitmore@avoyanetwork.com.

Elks Travel Club Plans Trips

The Santa Ana Elks Travel Club meets on the first Friday of each month at 1:00 pm at the Santa Ana lodge. The club coordinates a variety of day and extended tours including an upcoming six-day trip to Chicago in August and a 6-day trip to the Albuquerque Balloon Festival in October. For information, go to ElksTravelClub.com.

Emblem Club Has Busy June

by Evelyn Godinez

The Santa Ana Emblem Club participated in the Santa Ana, Orange and Tustin annual Memorial Day program held on Monday, May 27 at Santa Ana Cemetery. The Santa Ana Emblem Club #530 with the Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794 presented flags and laid wreaths during the ceremony. It was a very moving observance.

Our club held our annual tea on Sunday, June 9 with around 80 people in attendance. The food provided by our Elks lodge was amazing and yummy. Chairmen Maria Bisbee and Sharon Casares did an outstanding job putting this event together. There were a lot of fun tables including a butterfly table, a bee table, a beach table, a Chinese new year table, a flamingo table and many more. The winning table for the tea went to Valerie Fisher.

The Emblem Club also participated in the Santa Ana Elks #794 Flag Day program on Tuesday, June 14, performing the flag folding ceremony. Club president Roz Solano read the moving words for each fold and members worked together to fold the flag.

On Sunday, July 14, our club, together with the Buena Park, Huntington Park, Orange and Fullerton Emblem Clubs will be doing a joint state visitation to honor our new state president Jackie Still. Everyone is invited. Jackie Still is a member of our Eureka Emblem Club. If you would like information, just contact Evelyn Godinez at the lodge.

We also held a book drive for Kidsworks. Chairman Amanda Harvey was able to collect over 100 books for this program which helps children with after school homework and fun time.

Backpack time is here. We are lucky that Linda Fernandez devotes her time and energy to helping all children needing backpacks. Linda will be looking for volunteers to help put together the backpacks. Donate if you can.

Each and every month our bingo chairman Bernadette Lazzara and her helpers lead bingo at Hero's Landing Veterans Home. Do you know what the favorite prize for the veterans who bingo with us is? It is a roll of quarters. They use these quarters for the laundry. Once a month, we also do crafts with ways and means chairman Gloria Chavez. Chairman Valerie Fisher does a BBQ or boxed lunches for our veterans at least once a quarter and is always looking for volunteers.

Do you have any membership questions? Contact Valerie Fisher at 949-798-9384.

by Kellie Miller

Thank you who attended our Flag Day event put on by the inner guards, Ronnie and Caesar. It was a nice night to celebrate our flag. The sheriff department was there for colors and bagpipes.

The veterans committee spent an evening in June at Tustin Veteran Outpost with Linda Fernandez and Lisa Darmousseh of the charity committee. We prepared and served dinner, played games, celebrated birthdays and had dessert. It was a great night of feast, fellowship, fun and games.

The Fourth of July is coming up! It's a great day to remember and celebrate the birthday of our great country. We hope you join the lodge at our 4th of July Family Picnic put on by the tilers.

Also in July, the veterans committee will be sponsoring two veteran elk members to go fishing for the weekend.

Please don't forget that June was PTSD month. Please ask a veteran or someone you know if they're doing OK - there are a lot of resources to help. Be the one!

If you'd like to join the veterans committee, we would love to have you. Come join us at our next meeting: Tuesday July 16, 6:00 pm at the lodge or send an email to veterans-team@elks794.org or text veteransteam to 844-794-3557.

The 2024-2025 District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler for the Orange Coast District is Allen Bisbee, from the Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794. Allen will visit and inspect all eight lodges in the Orange Coast District along with his Esquire Kealoha Jenkins, Auditor Sandy Rees, and Photographer Michelle Joyce. At each visitation Allen will share the message of the Grand Exalted Ruler Douglas A. Schiefer. Allen's Homecoming will be on Tuesday, October 22 at 7:30 pm at the Santa Ana Elks Lodge. All members are welcome to attend.

Allen Bisbee, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler

Allen Bisbee was born and raised in Anaheim, California. After graduating from high school, Allen decided to enroll in the mortuary science program at Cypress College. Upon completion of his mortuary science education, Allen began what is now a 37-year, and counting funeral service career.

Several years later, during an evening of karaoke, Allen and Maraia started dating just a few months later.

Allen moved to Tustin in 2010 and became a member of Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794 in 2013. In spite of only being an Elk member for eight months, Allen was asked to join the officer corps. He started as inner guard and began his journey through the chairs.

Allen became exalted ruler in 2018-2019, right when the lodge was undergoing their transition to a new lodge building. Many challenges were faced during this transition, but Allen and Maria managed to keep the membership together and, at the same time, be a plus one lodge.

Allen and Maria got married in December of 2014. Between the two of them they have three children: Krista, Richard, and Stephanie and seven grandchildren: Nolan, Jaycion, DeV Vaughn, Zoey, Little Richard, Coralee and Boden.

Professionally, Allen is the president of Saddleback Chapel Mortuary in Tustin. He is a three-time past president of the Orange County Funeral Directors Association and is currently serving his sixth year on the California Funeral Directors Association state board.

Allen was on the Santa Ana Elks Lodge board of trustees for five years and was chairman of the board for one year, the Esquire to the past district deputy grand exalted ruler Jim Anderson and served as the association vice president for the Orange Coast District under past association president Brad Smith. Allen was asked to serve as the district deputy grand exalted ruler for the Orange Coast District for the 2024-2025 Elk year and was honored to accept the appointment. Allen will be sworn in as the district deputy grand exalted ruler for the Orange Coast District at the Elks national convention in Austin, Texas on July 3, 2024.

Peggy Kulpher to Head Sickness and Distress

We as Elk's commit ourselves to exemplifying the virtues of charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity. To that end, I would like to introduce myself as the new chairman of the Elk's Lodge 794 sickness and distress committee.

The purpose of sickness and distress is to ensure that no Elk is ever forgotten or forsaken. I invite anyone who knows a member who is sick, in the hospital or has lost a loved one to please reach out to me, Peggy Kupfer at ThinkingofYou@elks794.org.

ER Forms New PR Committee

Joe Rodriguez has formed a new PR committee in accordance with the bylaws of grand lodge. The new committee will be responsible for social media, fliers and posters, the web site, the app, ElkMail, the Elk-Horn and other forms of communication. They will also submit stories about our lodge to both the state and national Elks magazines.

On the committee, headed by Theresa Kammermeier, are Maria Bisbee, Linda Fernandez, Marc LaFont, Andy Matthews, John Moore and Johnny Nielsen.

"Our goal is to make it easier and more efficient to communicate the news of the lodge to our members," said Kammermeier. "With a new phone app, redesigned web site, and other innovations, we're looking forward to using the latest in communications technology to serve our members."

On the new web site (now visible at Elks794.com) for example, you'll see what's happening at the lodge every day and make online dinner reservations.

If you have talents in writing, proofing, or communications and would like to join the committee, write PR@Elks794.org.

Elks unanimously approved a resolution appropriating one million dollars for the "War Relief Fund". These funds helped the Commission organize and equip the first two base hospitals to reach France.

to a special war relief fund.

The most pressing need, as well as the most humanely appealing, was the adequate care of the sick and wounded fighting men overseas. Therefore, the first activity of the commission was to finance and provide the complete equipment for two base hospitals. These were the first base hospital units to reach the battle area in France where they both rendered notably distinguished service throughout the War.

The ever-increasing numbers of the maimed and wounded of our forces who were brought back home soon overtaxed the then available hospital and created a pressing need for additional

The Elks During the Great War

One of the chief aims of the Order of Elks has been not only to keep alive in the hearts of its own members a realization of the obligations of American citizenship, but also to quicken the spirit of true patriotism. It was natural, therefore, when our country entered World War I, the Elks were eager to render service.

After conferences with federal authorities as to the manner in which the resources of the order might be most effectively employed, the Grand Lodge appropriated one million dollars facilities. After securing the approval of the government, the commission promptly constructed and equipped a reconstruction hospital of with a 700 bed capacity in Boston, Massachusetts.

Dedicated and turned over to the government on November 16, 1918, it was the first of such hospitals to be established in the United States. It was operated to its full capacity for several years, until the need for it passed in 1921.

During the summer of 1918 the need became apparent for a community house at Camp Sherman, Ohio, in which the families of the forty thousand soldiers stationed there might be cared for during their visits there. The commission met this need by erecting a 72-room structure which effectively served its purpose, particularly during the great flu epidemic.

In the meantime, the Salvation Army was performing a wonderful service among our soldiers in France, but it was severely handicapped by lack of funds. To assist in meeting this exigency and to insure the continuance of this service, the War Relief Commission and Elks Lodges all over the country fostered the campaigns of the Army for the needed funds, in many instances assuming the entire cost of such campaigns.

“The Salvation Army can never forget, or get away from, it’s deep sense of indebtedness and gratitude to the grand body of men that is before me this morning,” said the commander of the Salvation Army, “I say without hesitancy that our organization could not have achieved it’s exceptional success in this war, but for the splendid, practical tangible aid that was rendered to us by the Elks.”

It is worthy of note, that the Elks was the first fraternal organization whose aid was sought in the movement for food conservation during the War. Perhaps the most distinctive and most helpful service by the Order in war relief work was in connection with the vocational training of our disabled soldiers, a field it had entirely to itself when this work was begun, in accredited association with the Federal Board of Vocational Education.

During this period of training, and in preparation thereof, many of the veterans were in dire need of financial assistance. Realizing that loans to them would be preferable to charitable gifts, the commission created a revolving fund from which such loans could be made, the repayment becoming available for other similar loans. Nearly forty thousand such loans were made. And it’s interesting to note that every dollar was repaid, except in a few cases where death, or other intervening cause, made it impossible. In the course of a speech delivered before the House of Representatives commending highly the over all war work of our Order, a congressman from the State of New York made the following statement regarding the revolving fund: "This great order seemed to sense with prophetic vision the frightful consequences of war and proceeded to set in motion and bring to successful fruition or achievement through it's Elks War Relief Commission a service most essential and timely, which had not been anticipated or performed by any other agency." He quoted, further, these words from another speech delivered before the House by a Congressman from the state of Washington: "The Elks Fund thus provided is the first instance of the kind in the history of the country where a great patriotic fraternal organization has come to the aid of the government in so timely, helpful and substantial a manner."

This unique service, thus performed by the Order, was so conspicuously effective that the government eventually followed the Order's example, and created a similar revolving fund, and took over this particular activity. The patriotic services performed by the Order of Elks during World War I, particularly in the administration of its war relief fund, have been subjects of numerous expressions of praise and appreciation. This is just another example of how Elks throughout history share and care.

Santa Ana Elks Sponsor July Blood Drive

Every day, blood donors help patients of all ages: accident and burn victims, heart surgery and organ transplant patients, and those battling cancer. In fact, every two seconds, someone in the U.S. needs blood.

The American Red Cross, which supplies 40% of the nation's blood, currently has a shortfall of blood and platelet donations due to a busy travel season and back-to-back months of climate disasters in certain parts of the country. Give blood - give life! Donate at the Santa Ana Elks American Red Cross blood drive on Thursday, July 25 from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm.

The drive takes place at the lodge. And for your donation, you'll receive a Fandango movie ticket to see the new movie Twisters and a 20% off coupon for dinner at the lodge.

To sign up, use the bar code to the left, sign up on our website: Elks794.com or call the Red Cross at 1-800-733-2767.

The Chicago Experience on July 19: A Tribute to Rock and Roll with Horns.

The Chicago Experience, which formed about fourteen years ago in Chicago, performs their tribute to Chicago on Friday, July 19 at the Santa Ana Elks Lodge.

The band features three lead vocalists – Brian Hemstock, Adam Briel and Ron Brandt, who also plays guitar – bassist Tim Rutter, keyboardist/guitarist Paul Wood, drummer Adam Cowger and the three-piece horn section of Steve Frost trombonist Terry Viano and saxophonist/flutist Jim Massoth.

The Chicago Experience focuses a good portion of their set list on the early years, especially Chicago’s first two records, 1969’s “Chicago Transit Authority” and the 1970 self-titled album, which features songs like “Beginnings,” “Questions 67 and 68” and “Does Anybody Really Know What Time It Is?”

Frost considers it an honor to pay tribute to one of his earliest musical influences. “Being one of the most iconic rock and roll bands of our time, it gives us a chance to reach generations of fans,” he says. “Their songs touch such a wide demographic. We just have a blast doing it.”

In addition to the concert, the evening fundraiser includes a buffet meal. The event is expected to sell out, so it is advised that tickets be purchased in advance at the lodge or by calling 714-547 7794.
