Greetings Elks brothers and sisters. During the holiday season, The Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794 comes together to celebrate with a strong sense of community, charity, and tradition. Members and our families often participate in festive events such our Oktoberfest fundraiser hosted by Our “Leading Knight”, Mark Schauwecker, the Halloween party hosted by Loyal Knight Eli Morales, Trunk or Treat hosted by Lecturing Knight Bryan Byrd, and fundraising activities hosted by our charity committee to support local families in need.

The Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794 also hosts special ceremonies, live music concerts, and the warmth of fellowship which fill the lodge with an atmosphere of joy and generosity, which is true to the Elks’ mission of charity and brotherhood,

As you see, Santa Ana Elks Lodge # 794 is in full swing, starting off this year’s holiday season with a bang!

Motto “Honoring tradition, while embracing innovation, development, and growth”. Elks brothers and sisters remember to embrace, cherish, nurture, love, and protect the statutes and by-laws of the Santa Ana Elks Lodge and the constitution of the United States.

Esteemed Leading Knight
Mark Schauwecker

As Elks, we are known for our charity and generosity to each other and our community. Throughout the year, we actively support veterans, youth scholarships and activities, and local charities. Not only does it feel good to give back but we have fun and build fellowship at the same time.

Let’s bring that same spirit to this holiday season as we “give the gift of love”.

Our two-day holiday gala will be December 6 and 7. The luncheon will be held on Friday, December 6 with the gala on Saturday night the 7th. The gala is a signature fundraising event featuring an elegant dinner, live entertainment, festive decor, silent auction and opportunity drawing for themed, gift-laden holiday trees. I hope you can join in the festivities.

Esteemed Loyal Knight Eli Morales

As we welcome the month of November, a month dedicated to the celebration of Thanksgiving, a time of reflection, family, friendships and everything we hold dear, I invite you to take a moment to ponder the many blessings we share as members of this remarkable lodge.

Allow me to share some of the reasons for which I am grateful for this year as a member of the Santa Ana Elks, and also recognized all of you for your impressive accomplishments. It is both an honor and a privilege to serve you as your loyal knight. I am sincerely thankful to be part of the dedicated team of officers you have elected. I also wish to acknowledge and appreciate all of our members and participants who support our fundraising initiatives, for they have made a significant impact in the success of our lodge.

Thanks to your generosity, we have provided over 3,600 backpacks to local students and are on track to surpass the number of scholarships awarded this year. Furthermore, your contributions have enabled our veterans committee to raise substantial funds that will aid many veterans in need. I am truly grateful for all our committees and the essential work they carry out.

My gratitude on Thanksgiving day will extend beyond my family and their wellbeing, for this year, I feel a special appreciation for my Elks family. I am thankful for this lodge that I proudly call home and the amazing individuals who have welcomed me into their lives as a friend. I am also grateful for our dedicated staff, who work tirelessly to ensure that our events are the best in the district and that we can enjoy our time together in the lodge.

For these reasons and many others, I express my gratitude and hope that you, my fellow Elks, recognize the importance of your contributions and take a moment to appreciate being part of this family. As we reflect on our blessings this November, let us continue to support one another and our community. Thank you, Elks, for everything that you do.

Elkdom: love it, live it!

Esteemed Lecturing Knight Brian Byrd

All brother and sister Elks, the year is going by really fast. We're already starting November and things are starting to get really busy at the lodge. The holiday season is upon us with Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Hanukkah, Kwanza, and New Years. Read the ElkHorn and make your reservations for all the great activities coming your way. Make sure you make dinner reservations Wednesdays through Saturdays so can enjoy our great food and meet new friends in your Elks family.

Coming up very soon (November 2 we have our annual Hoop Shoot at Century High School (401 South Grand Avenue, Santa Ana). Check in is at 8:30 AM and the competition will begin at 9:00.

Kids ages 5-14 are welcome to participate. There are three age groups in this free throw competition. They get five practice shots, then ten contest shots, a quick break, and then fifteen more shots. Those with the most baskets will continue on to the district competition. Get your children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews involved. You can also get involved by helping out on the day of the event. Contact me at bkbyrd63@gmail.com if you are interested. Sign ups are also in the lodge lobby.

After the scary holiday, Halloween, the rest of the holidays remaining for the year should emphasize our family and friends. Let's remember how much they all mean to us. Enjoy your time with them. Remember all the great time you've had with them and cherish those memories. Plan some new adventures with them and stay close to them. As the lecturing knight, I have tried to be a better person today than I was yesterday. Be kind to your fellow man. Remember what we do as Elks, we look after one another. Comfort those who mourn. Bring rest to the weary. Lighten each other's burdens. It takes very little effort, but is exceptionally rewarding for both parties.

As I close this out, here's a quick thought: Let's have fun, but remember our fun helps the community. We've got scholarships, after school programs (The Hive), sports teams, schools, veterans groups, and seniors that are all a part of our Elk family.

I look forward to seeing you Tuesday at 7:30 PM for our weekly lodge meetings.

Get involved!

Good News: As your proud general manager, I am happy to report commodity prices are coming down, which has allowed me to restructure all the menus to reflect lower pricing without sacrificing our high standards of quality. Visit our website (SAElks.com/menus) to review all the menus. As a reminder, being an Elk member means value-priced food and beverages. Plan your next dining experience soon and take advantage of the new Elks prices.

Our valued weekly features are as follows: Saturday pancake breakfast $10.95, Saturday night date night with a great dinner menu including prime rib starting at $20.00 (free corkage, one bottle per couple), NFL Sunday express brunch $14.95 followed by Sunday spaghetti dinner for only $10.95 (kids 10 years and under hop on the scale and pay 5¢ per pound), Taco Tuesday with a two item buffet for $10.95, Wednesday create your own pasta meal for $14.95 and Trivia, and Thursday all American menu with prime rib starting at $22.00 and karaoke. Most Friday and Saturday evenings there is some kind of entertainment (i.e. DJ or small combo with music designed for ballroom dancing to the current tunes of today).

Thanksgiving is drawing near, and Chef Jose and the culinary team are putting out a spread that's fit for a pilgrim. We went through 900 oysters last year and the roasted turkey is moist and delicious with all the sides that Mom makes. This year let's keep Mom out of the kitchen and let her enjoy the day and the beautiful entertainment by none other than harpist, Dr. Ted Nicolson. Call the lodge to make your reservation now for the Thanksgiving lunch on Thursday, November 28 (11:00 am -4:00 pm).

Another one of my duties as the facility manager is to keep your magnificent lodge in tip-top shape and to ensure our tenants the Orange County Credit Union have no issues and are happy. As with anything, this enormous job takes a village so if you notice anything that needs attention, please let me know immediately so I can address it.

Team Recognition Corner

As you know, we have assembled a fantastic team of employees whose goal is to serve the members and the outside event attendees. Most of the team have worked with me for many years, so each month I want to take time to mention them in order of longevity.

Abraham Montoya has worked with me for 31 years. I remember this because he used to push my son, Chris, around in a stroller and he just turned 31.

Abraham was born in Guanajuato (outside of Mexico City) and became a US Citizen in 1983. He has been married for 38 years, has five children, and eight grandchildren with one on the way. Abraham runs the food to you from the kitchen, carves the meats at our holiday buffets, and on Tuesdays through Fridays he gets in early to detail clean and sanitize all the restrooms before we open the doors. He is easy to spot, he always has a smile on his face. Next time you see Abraham be sure to say hello.

This month's cover design

As you can see on our cover page, November is known for the month of Thanksgiving. It's also the month we celebrate Veteran's Day as well as the Marine Corps birthday.

I'm sure we're all thankful each year when November rolls around, for at least one meal during the day that puts us to sleep for an hour or two. This year let's be encouraged to remember all the blessings we have been given. Our veterans for sure, and of course our families.

This year on Thanksgiving Day, take a moment to stop and think about what else you can be thankful for. If it's a person, let them know. If it's something else, give thanks to whomever helped or was involved.

"We must find time to stop and thank the people who make a difference in our lives."

I Pledge Allegiance

The Story behind the Lodge Room Flag

by Dan Breece

I would be willing to bet big money that if I asked 1,000 members of our lodge who a certain person was, I could count on one hand how many would know him.

If you joined our lodge as a member anytime after September of 2019, you have been in our lodge room at least once when you were initiated. Anyone just feel a tinge of guilt if that's you? Sorry, let me stay on topic.

As I'm sure most if not all of you know, our lodge opened in June of 2019. As with any new "home", there is always the task of decorating it. Over the past five years, we've done a nice job of making it feel like a lodge and our "home". One of those items is the American flag that hangs on the wall in our lodge room behind the exalted ruler station. It's a nice big flag in a nice, basic frame. The focal point of our lodge when you sit anywhere in the room.

Let's go back to March of 2019. My stepdaughter, Neli, was playing softball for Syracuse University. Her dad, Scott, and my wife Sharon were all back in New York to watch her play. In between games we would seek out Elks lodges. On this trip, we traveled to Rome, New York and visited Elks Lodge #96. It was built around 1848 and is on both the State of New York and national registries of historical buildings. As we finished up the tour, we were given what was obviously a star from a retired U.S. flag, as a souvenir. We asked if it was from a flag at their lodge and we were told no, it was from a retired flag from a local grave site there in town. The name on the grave? Francis Bellamy.

So now I ask all of our approximately 1,800 members (assuming not everyone will read this), do you know who Francis Bellamy is? He was none other than the man who wrote our Pledge of Allegiance. He was a Baptist minister as a young man and his travels to promote his faith and be of service in the community, brought him to Massachusetts. In 1891, he was hired at the patriotic circular/magazine, Youth's Companion. A few years earlier, Youth's Companion had initiated a campaign to sell U.S. flags to public schools around the country. Francis penned the pledge as a part of the promotion.

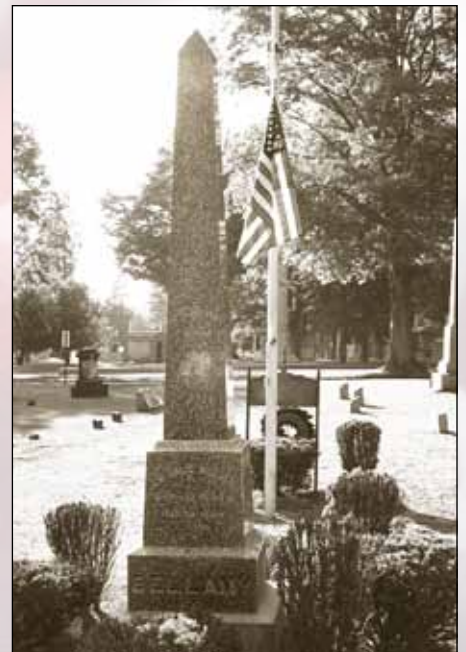

The original version was this: "I pledge Allegiance to my Flag and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all". Bellamy's original salute, included extending your arm out toward the flag, palm up.

That salute was changed to what we know now of placing our hands over hearts in WW II, mainly because it too closely resembled the Nazi salute of Hitler's Germany. Later in 1954, to offset a perceived threat of secular communism, President Eisenhower added the words, "under God", giving us our current version.

On our tour, when we found out where those stars came from, we mentioned how great it would be to have a flag that had flown over the gravesite of the author of our pledge of allegiance for our new lodge. That was left hanging, with nary a yea, nay or maybe. Then in September, we received a package in the mail and there was the flag with a note from the Rome Elks Lodge that it had flown over the gravesite of Francis Bellamy.

The next time you take someone on a tour or are in the lodge, ask someone if they know about the flag. It's always fun to see how they react when they find out where it came from.

This month of November brings Veterans Day on the 11th, Marine Corps birthday on the 10th and, of course, Thanksgiving on the 28th. Hopefully, you'll be lucky enough to get to spend time with family and friends, but not everyone has that choice.

That's why the veterans committee will be preparing 75 dinner kits for veterans to pick up and take to their respective homes to prepare turkey and fixings for those close to them. (Whole turkey, potatoes, vegetables, rolls etc.) This is part of our Focus Grant and one of the main reasons we chose Patriots and Paws. Their main mission is to provide veterans, active military, reservists and their families throughout Southern California with basic home furnishing for newly acquired residences.

Tuesday, November 12 we'll be having our open meeting for Veterans Day. Please come to the lodge for dinner, music and to thank a veteran and camaraderie. It's an open meeting, so invite your friends, relatives and veterans.

This past month the veterans committee set up and stocked a food pantry at Heroes Landing. (They are one of the few in Orange County that houses veterans only.) This will enable veterans that move in, off the street to be able to eat. It also helps with others housed that need something to get them through.

We're in full force with Wreaths Across America. Please buy a wreath that can be laid at a veteran's grave. The QR code below will take you directly into our account in the Santa Ana Cemetery. Buy a wreath and/or volunteer on December 14. You don't want to miss it.

Please join us at our next meeting on Tuesday November 19 at 6:00 pm in The Nest at the lodge. Happy Thanksgiving and please remember to help those in need.

Veterans committee members installed shelving at Hero's Landing veterans home.

Veterans to be Honored at Special Program

The veterans committee invites all Elks, veterans and their families and friends to our Veterans' Day program on Tuesday, November 12 at 7:00 pm when we will honor our nation's veterans with special music by the AOCDS Pipe Band. A special meal will be offered for $15 from 4:30 to 7:00 pm. This is a great event and we encourage you to attend. For a list of Santa Ana Elks Lodge #794 veterans, go to SAElks.com/veterans or scan the QR code.

Contest Announced for New Lodge Pin Design

Current Santa Ana Lodge Pin

by Buck Kuhns

The second year after I joined the Elks, I went to orientations to meet the new candidates. Every now and then, I would be asked, “What do you like about the Elks?” I would respond, “It is getting to visit other lodges.”

That still holds true today. There are a lot of reasons to enjoy being an Elk: the camaraderie, the volunteering opportunities, being an officer, and of course, visiting other lodges. I have conservatively been to over 350 lodges in my merry travels.

One of the first questions I ask when visiting other lodges, after going on a tour of their lodge, is, “Do you have a lodge pin?” If they do, I will buy one. Many times they’ll give me one and respond with, “Do you have one to share?” Luckily, I usually do, as I bought a bunch a few years back.

My stash is now running dry. Thus, the reason for this article. We have run out of lodge pins. Instead of producing more of the old pin, it is time to create a new lodge pin that reflects our current lodge.

The current lodge pin has a likeness to our current CHEA pin, without the Hawaiian flag. There are a few subtle differences, but they are similar. I went to the house committee and proposed a design contest for a new lodge pin that’s unique to our lodge.

They approved the idea and tasked me with organizing a contest to select a new pin; something we can be proud to have available for current members and to visiting Elks. Let’s get started and make this happen.

New pin design process:

1. The deadline for current Elks members to submit a design for a pin is December 10, 2024.
2. A small committee of non-participating Elks members will select three pins from those submitted. These will be pins they believe best represent our Lodge.
3. Those chosen will be published on our web site and social media for review by our members.
4. A vote on the floor of the lodge will be held at the February 18 lodge meeting to select a new lodge pin.
5. The designer of the winning pin will receive their 2025-2026 dues paid.

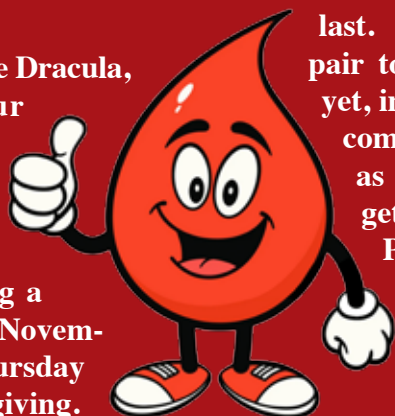

So release the hounds! Let the creative juices flow, design us a new pin and win your 2025-2026 dues. Submit your designs via email to RodriguezJoseph577@gmail.com or drop them by at the front desk in an envelope marked “Pin Contest.”

Give Blood, Help Save a Life

by Buck Kuhns

To plagiarize Dracula, “I want your blood”. It’s that time again, when The Santa Ana Elks are hosting a blood drive on November 21, the Thursday before Thanksgiving. This is something that is so easy to do, and you will feel soooo good knowing that you have donated and helped so many. It’s quick and easy!

last. Keep a pair, gift a pair to a friend. Better yet, invite your friend to come down and donate as well and they will get their own socks. Plus, you get FWEE snacks and juice after donation. AND... I almost forgot... you, as a Santa Ana Elk, will get a coupon for 20% off a yummy meal at our world famous lodge. All that for your single donation. Such a deal!

Here are a few things about how your donation can help:

- The need for blood is every two seconds, from accident victims to cancer patients
- Cancer patients use nearly one quarter of the blood supply. I’m sure we all have friends that have benefited from these donations... I know I have several.
- A single blood donation can save up to three lives.
- Type O- is the universal blood type used for emergency transfusions, but they need all types.
- Did you know that only 3% of the eligible U.S. population donates blood annually. Com’on people, become a part of that small percentage and help it grow.

Like I said, it’s quick and easy. For your blood drive donation on November 21, you will receive two pairs (yes, not one but two pairs) of custom Red Cross socks, while they

Here are three easy ways to schedule your donation, choose the one that works best for you:

1. Go to SAElks.com/blood and click the link to go directly to the scheduling page.
2. Go to RedCrossBlood.org and type in the sponsor code ElksLodge794.
3. Scan the QR code below.

Use one of these and pick your time for your donation. Do something that makes you feel good on the 21st... it really is quick and easy.

An actual quote from Dracula, “The blood is life.” Yes it is. I hope to see all you proud Elks on the 21st.

MNF Just Keep On Giving!

by Dan Breece

As is the theme of this month's Elk Horn is all about giving, so does our MNF committee keep on giving with all it does. November marks the start of our dearest holiday season. We are thankful for our veterans as we celebrate Veteran's Day on November 11 (and at the lodge on Tuesday, November 12).

The last Thursday of November each year is, of course, Thanksgiving. It started all the way back in 1621 to celebrate the Pilgrims first harvest here in America. Abraham Lincoln designated the final Thursday of each November as Thanksgiving Day. His intent was to help heal the wounds of the civil war and bring our country closer together.

Through the years, this holiday saw many changes and was held for many varied reasons. In 1939 FDR moved the day to the third Thursday in an effort to spur retail sales during the depression. This only lasted a couple of years when, after passionate opposition, he signed a bill designating the fourth Thursday, the official day to celebrate Thanksgiving.

The MNF committee represents our lodge and its members proudly when it comes to giving. We have an unofficial motto,

"We're a group of people who come up with the most fun idea we can, to raise as much money as we can having all that fun, to turn around and give it away to the neediest of the needy".

So, the committee is thankful for all the support you and your guests provide year-round for all we do. Your giving of donations, whether it be monetary, time or ideas, are all a huge part of what we do in the community. Without you, we could not do what we do. Thank you! We are grateful and thankful for you!

This past month the committee supported several more groups who asked for assistance: Segerstrom High School Flag Football; the Santa Ana College Foundation, which supports veterans; the OC Buckeyes youth football program; and the North Carolina Elks State Association's Hurricane Relief Fund. We also provided funds to the scholarship committee for the student-athlete scholarships to be given out next spring.

From our MNF committee to you and yours, we wish you a very thankful Thanksgiving! We hope to see on a Sunday or Monday! If you have any questions or comments, or an organization in need, please email Scott Maher, at 794mnfchairman@gmail.com

Percy the Purple Pig says “Thank You”

by Maria Piña

Percy, our Purple Pig and the Purple Pig committee have many reasons to be thankful this 2024 year. Since April of 2024, members have donated to the Purple Pig in a variety of ways: through recurring donations; as members renew their dues; returning their filled purple piggy banks; fundraising with our chocolate pigs; selling Percy swag, and other charitable donations. From April 1 through September 2024, Santa Ana lodge Purple Pig contributions have brought in over $ 16,000.00 in donations!

In appreciation, Percy and the Purple Pig committee would like to say thank you and acknowledge our 2024 piggy bank donors. The names are in alphabetical order by first name and please forgive me if I left anyone out.

We would also like to thank our recurring donors. As of the Autumn 2024 edition of the CHEA magazine we thank: Dan Breece, Jeffery Brumett, Mary Cordova, Theresa Kammermeier, David Manske, Andrew Matthews, Sue McKee, Laura Noack, Roslyn J. Peggins, Paul Pelasky, and Mark Schauwecker.

A HUGE thank you goes to the committees for donating raffle baskets for our fundraiser during the Beach Boys tribute band last month: Monday Night Football, The Nomads, Karla and George, Valerie Fisher, Brian Yeandle, and Veterans Committee. With their help, Purple Pig raised over $2,000! Thank you! I also want to give a special shout out to Mike Lopez for his donation!

The amount of help and support that the Santa Ana lodge has provided the Purple Pig is humbling and the Purple Pig committee is thankful and grateful to everyone!

Scholarship Committee Goes Into High Gear

by Linda Barcelona

Oh, my goodness, we are fully into Fall, Thanksgiving is on the horizon and the rest of the holidays are in site after that! I hope you were able to attend our fabulous Halloween party, the largest in the county, I dare say! Thanks to our trustee's, the profits from this year's event were graciously split between our Elks 794 scholarship fund and the Olive Crest charity.

This time of year is a busy time for everyone but especially for scholarship applicants and the scholarship committee. We had a successful scholarship information night in September. We've been reaching out to the schools in our service area of Santa Ana, Tustin and Irvine, giving them the information on our available scholarships and this month we'll be expecting our first applications of the season.

The Most Valuable Student applications are the first to be due on 11/12/24. This scholarship the applicants have a chance to compete at the district, state and even national levels of our Elks organization. We have had several students in the past receive the larger district and state awards and one who was one of 20 in the nation to receive a national award.

The Bob McCalla Scholarship is a memorial legacy scholarship honoring Bob McCalla and his contributions to our lodge. That scholarship awards a minimum of five $1,000 college scholarships a year and applications are due on 12/20/24.

The last scholarship I'd like to draw your attention to is the Opportunity Scholarship, applications also due on 12/20/24. This is a new scholarship this year, funded by one of our members, that is designed to lend a hand to those students attending or planning to attend a community college program.

A complete list of the scholarships our 794 Lodge offers is right here in the Elk Horn, complete with the QR codes to take you right to the online applications. Thanks to Marc LaFont and Wendy Becerra we've taken our scholarships access and information to the next level and entered the digital era! You can download copies at SAElks.com/scholarships and we also have paper copies of our scholarship grid available in the lodge lobby.

Open Letter from Linda Fernandez, Backpack Chair

I would like to thank everyone that participated in the Backpack Drive this year. You will be happy to know that we hit an all-time high of 3,559 backpacks. This is all thanks to all of you and all you do for our community.

Unfortunately, during the first day of stuffing pouches and setting up, I fell. I fractured my shoulder in 5 places and got wheeled out on a gurney. We are so lucky that we have members that jumped right in to take over and did a tremendous job! Sue McKee, Lisa Darmousseh, Claudia Perez and my right hand, Sheila Rodriguez. We could not have had a better team. These ladies knew what to do because they had helped before and jumped right in and ran with it. I am so proud of them and glad to know the project is in good hands no matter what happens.

This year we were able to supply backpacks to the Salvation Army, Miracles for Kids, The Hive (after school program), Big Brothers/Big Sisters, The Priority Center (support for children in need and their families), TKO Boxing (an after school program), SAUSD, Saddleback High School - Step Up Program, Santa Ana PAL (a police athletic League), as well as the Mayors Resource Fair. There are so many wonderful programs that help our community which includes Irvine, Tustin and Santa Ana.

I would like to thank all who donated time and money. We had around 45 volunteers stuffing backpacks both days. It was a huge job this year and you did an amazing job!

From the bottom of my heart, thank you for all your help. You are truly The Best People on Earth!

Emblem Hosts Parcel Post Dinner

by Evelyn Godinez, SPP

On Sunday, November 17, the Santa Ana Emblem Club will be hosting our annual Parcel Post Dinner. It will be held in the McCalla Lounge of the Santa Ana Elks Lodge. Our auctioneer is none other than Allen Bisbee, district deputy grand exalted ruler for the Orange Coast District. The cost is $20 per person and include a Lasagna Dinner. If you would like to come and participate, wrap a new gift (minimum $15 retail value) in a brown paper sack or box. Mark it with the place, city, state or county of purchase. All are invited. Our chairman is Joyce Bryant.

On Sunday, October 27, the lodge held its annual Trunk or Treat. The Santa Ana Emblem Club #530 participated in this great event and gave away lots of candy, coloring books, crayons, rubber ducky toys and children's books. Chairman Evelyn Godinez and her crew of helpers had a great time with the children and their parents. This event is one of the best events for children that our lodge sponsors. The children with their great costumes were amazing.

The Emblem continues to support Hero's Landing. Our Emblem veterans chairman Valerie Fisher keeps us busy having fun with the residents of Hero's Landing. We host a monthly Bingo night headed up by Bernadette Lazzaro. Some of Bernadette's helpers are Stephanie Roe, Connie F. Davis, Sonia Mexia and more. We also sponsor a monthly craft day chaired by Gloria Chavez. The Emblem Club will be providing the residents of Hero's Landing with a Thanksgiving luncheon. Chairman Valerie Fisher always makes sure our veterans have a great meal. Thank you, Valerie.

Do you have any membership questions? Please contact our membership chairman Valerie Fisher at 949-798-9384.

Eagles/Ronstadt Experience 11/22

With five number-one singles, six Grammy Awards, five American Music Awards, and six number-one albums, the Eagles were one of the most successful musical acts of the 1970s. At the end of the 20th century, two of their albums, Their Greatest Hits and Hotel California, were ranked among the 20 best-selling albums in the United States

Likewise, Linda Ronstadt has five platinum and multi-platinum albums and was inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and received the National Medal of Arts in 2014. For her extraordinarily diverse body of work across four decades, she has received lifetime achievement awards from the Recording Academy in 2016, the Kennedy Center Honors in Washington D.C. in 2019.

Now, Eagles Ronstadt Experience remakes the biggest hits of The Eagles and Linda Ronstadt at the Santa Ana Elks Lodge on Friday, November 22. This tremendous tribute to the writing, performance, style and sound of the California country, folk, and rock music superstars is sure to be a sell out.

Tickets include buffet dinner with Southwestern Cesar salad, fresh fruit salad, beef, chicken and chrip fajitas, cilantro rice, black beans, sweet corn, and ice cream for dessert.

The doors open at 6:00 pm with DJ Ronnie and the concert begins at 7:45 until 10:00 pm. The price is $50 for members and their guests and $60 for non-members. There is only room for the first 280 reservations, so call yours in now at 714-547-7794.
